

This Webinar will be conducted via a Learning Management System (LMS) and web-conferencing apps (Zoom). Successful applicants must have access to a computer/an internet connection.

- Once accepted, you will be invited to join our LMS and you will receive instructions on how to begin.

Take part in BUILDING AN ONLINE LEARNING COMMUNITY

Share, Discuss & Reflect

Readings
Film/Video
Interactive Activities/Games

HOPE AND HUMANITY: LESSONS FROM WW2 IN ASIA

5 Lessons

- An Overview of WW2 History in Asia: Critical Perspectives
- War Crimes in Asia:
- Human Experimentation, Biological, and Chemical Warfare
- Military SEXual Slavery
- Forced Labour
- The Promise of Human Rights /Reflecting on the Legacies of the International Military Tribunal of The Far East

Get individual feedback

UNDERTAKE AN INDEPENDENT PROJECT

Interns assigned to undertake Research and Resource Development will be paired with a member of the staff who will provide guidance and mentorship for your selected project.

Participants auditing the webinar and are not under a credit-based internship program of our partner universities are not required to undertake a research project but should complete the minimum requirements to gain a certificate of completion for the webinar.

Meet participants from other parts of the world

Socialize

Learn by doing HISTORICAL THINKING EXERCISES

Individual and Group Activities

give/get peer feedback

Here's a snapshot of what the Summer Online Internship is all about